Reminder: One of the greatest deliverances, is getting delivered from what folks think about you.

Father we come to you on this day, humbling ourselves at the throne of grace, acknowledging that you are our Sovereign Lord and King.

We thank you for brand new mercies every morning and realize that it is because of your mercy that we are not consumed.

Great is your faithfulness, love and compassion.

We acknowledge that we've sinned and fallen short of your glory. We confess and repent of our sins.

We desire to please you with our whole heart, and ask your forgiveness even now.

We are not ignorant of the enemies devices and come against every demonic plot and scheme.

We come against that which keeps us in bondage, but more so we come against our mindsets that empower the enemies devices.

We pray for positive mindsets and elevation from our shallow and defeated thought patterns.

We set our affections on things above and think on whatsoever things are true, honest, lovely, pure, just, and of good report; we will meditate on your word BOTH day and night.

We pray that you would open our eyes that we may see, open our ears that we may hear, create in us a clean heart and renew your spirit within us.

We declare this day that we will not perish for the lack of knowledge because we will not reject knowledge. For we count not ourselves to have attained or apprehended: but we forget those things which are behind us and we reach forth to that which is before us, we press toward the mark for the prize!

We press through the dark clouds and fierce lightning, through the storms, the tempest, the high winds, and rising waters;

God we press through sickness, because by your stripes we are healed; we press through sadness, because your joy is our strength;

we press through confusion, because you'll give us peace if we'd only keep our minds stayed on thee!

We press through the press, for we are more than conquerors.

We ask for your generous gift of wisdom right now in the name of Jesus, understanding that without reproach, it shall be given unto us.

And Lord we thank you for your grace, which gives us what we don't deserve and your mercy, which holds back what we do deserve!

Thank you God, not just for what you've done but for who you are!

In the Matchless Name of Jesus the Christ, son of the Only True and Living God....AMEN.

Psalms 57:1 Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me; For my soul taketh refuge in thee:

Yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I take refuge, Until these calamities be overpast.
